Filipino hostage freed

Cell phone transmissions shut down in Sulu

By Michael Lim-Uloc and Arlyn dela Cruz

KIDNAPPERS LAST NIGHT RELEASED FILIPINO MARY Jean Lacaba, one of three Red Cross workers abducted 78 days ago, Sen. Juan Miguel Zubiri reported.

Zubiri said in a text message to the Inquirer that Lacaba was freed at around 9 p.m. to Sulu Vice Gov. Lady Nene Saladig, who trained her over to the military.

Defense Secretary Gilbert Teodoro relayed the information of the release, said the senator.

Teodoro himself confirmed the information in a TV interview but gave no details.

There was no immediate word on the fate of the two other kidnapped workers of the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC)—Swiss Andreas Steiner and Italian Eugenio Vigni.

An Inquirer reporter earlier attempted to contact by phone, the kidnapers who had been staying information about conditions of the hostages.

Rep. Numpy Akid said cellular and satellite phone transmissions covering Indonesia, during and before the abduction, had been shut down by authorities over 8 p.m. Wednesday following the declaration of a state of emergency in the province.

He said that clemency also had been turned off in Indonesia, his hometown, prompting him to go to Jolo town to communicate.

While calls by the Inquirer reporter to the Abu Sayyaf leaders holding the hostages had not gone through since the kidnapers put off a threat to hand one hostage Tuesday.

In Rome, Italian Foreign Minister Franco Frattini indicated that he had been able to contact Vigni, according to the Italian news agency Ansa.

The hostages' fate also, according to information in his possession," said Frattini, following "contacts with our counterparts," Ansa reported. It was unclear when the contact was made.

Akid, along with Muslim religious and political leaders, was able to nego-

GMA picks Bersamin as newest SC justice

By Dana Pineda

COURT OF APPEALS Justice Lucas Bersamin, who says he takes most pride in his "independence" as a justice, has been appointed by President Maunag-Arroyo as the newest Supreme Court justice.

Bersamin, who became the 362nd justice of the highest court of the land, is set to take his oath before Chief Justice Reynato Puno this morning as he would immediately assume office, according to Supreme Court spokesperson Michel Marquis.

Bersamin is the younger brother of Atty. Rep. Luis Bersamin, Jr., who was shot dead outside the St. Gabriel Church in Quezon City in December 2006 in an attack for which Senator Alex Gue Varma Valera and 7 other people have been charged with murder.

Senator seeks inquiry into 'prostitution' aspect of Balikatan exercise in Bicol

By Michael Lim-Uloc

IS THE PHILIPPINES NOW A BROTHEL for Uncle Sam?

Sen. Francis Pangloss yesterday expressed concern over reports that American soldiers involved in the Balikatan joint military exercise with Filipino troops in Bicol were supplied with women nightly.

"This is just more proof the Visiting Force Agreement (VFA) is doing us more harm than good. The VFA has turned us into a brothel for US soldiers," said Pangloss in a phone interview.

Pangloss said he was drafting a Senate resolution to inquire into the "prostitution aspect" of the annual military exercise between Philippines and US forces.

The VFA governs the conduct of US troops visiting the country. It has been under the scrutiny for forcing US military personnel who stay at hotels of Philippine towns, particularly in the case of a Marine convicted of raping a Filipino woman but who has been allowed to remain under US, not Philippine, custody while the soldier is on appeal.

Treasurer gets 20 years for malversation

By Philip C. Tolosa

THE SANDAGANBONG FIVE SENTENCED a former assigned treasurer to 20 years to spend 20 years in prison for malversation of P1.8 million hydrolytic funds.

In a 14-page decision, the outgoing court from Division Court Branch 12, Zamboanga, former treasurer of Davao, Manobo, guilty of malversation of public funds under the limited fund rule. "Sampag had no proven evidence that he did not get the public funds for his personal use," said the ruling rendered by Associate Justice Alexander G. Sison. Sampag was sentenced to 18 to 20 years in prison, ordered to pay a fine of P1,800,000, and was "perpetually disqualified from holding any public office."

Records showed that Sampag was indicted for the case against Sampag, guilty of malversation of public funds for the period of Sept. 16, 1991 to April 15, 1992 and subsequent transactions. The CDA found out that Sampag was short of P1.8 million in his accounts and ordered him to explain within 72 hours why that happened.

The defendant, however, failed to reply and an OSA filed a case against him before the Office of the Ombudsman, which later found probable cause to charge Sampag before the Sandagabong.

promoting facial rejuvenation in just one complete treatment. It uses the same patented Combined Acne Pulse® (CAP) technology which employs the benefits of both invasive and non-invasive procedures. It also targets all layers of the skin and is applied in 4 to 6 sessions that is 40% faster than other technologies as treatment time has been considerably lowered. You can easily spare at least 30 minutes of your time for a Renew treatment.

Some traditional laser treatments are proven effective in removing age spots and fading wrinkles and lines, but studies show that some patients experience cases of irritation, skin sensitivity, pain or discomfort during procedures. Some patients also do not like the added hassle of post-treatment ointment and topical anesthesia.

"I always believe in aging gracefully," says Cheryl Lee. "I'm glad I found something that helps me do so without having to battle with it but surely along with it instead. I found that in Renew by Affirm. It's probably the best treatment I've tried ever for removing my dark spots, acne scars and wrinkles. It's even better than laser, which I used to do but that one required anesthesia. With Renew, 20 minutes is all it takes to make my skin feel that it's on its way to looking better as it should. Renew makes my skin look naturally glowing after fractional laser that requires topical anesthesia and have 5 to 7 days of downtime. Renew only gives skin the appropriate depth of aging skin without compromising effectiveness and safety. The no downtime generation of energy levels, there is less epidermal damage and also minimal discomfort, so the healing process of the skin is rapidly accelerated."

Renew Your Skin with RENEW

by Affirm™ in just one complete treatment!

After the 1st session, an immediate difference in the skin can be seen. Pores look finer. Skin complexion gets to have a healthy, even and supple glow. Skin looks tighter and lighter. Skin texture, however, becomes visible after the 4th to 6th session. Because Renew stimulates and renews collagen regeneration, wrinkles are smoothed out. Facial tone is rejuvenated, immediately making skin appear younger and healthier.

TV actress Angel Locsin is amazed with the results of Renew. "I've only tried Renew a few times, but a number of people have already been commenting on my skin. They said I looked clean and brighter, and that is so great! My friend Jelene (Dizon) even told me my skin was looking a lot younger and I was surprised because she didn't know I was a friend at Facial Care! Plus, she noticed this when I wasn't even wearing any make-up at all!"

This multi-benefit treatment is the solution to getting a smooth, healthy and clear complexion that instantly takes years off your age. So the next time you look in the mirror, the three words you'll be saying are "I look Renewed!"

RP to ask Dutch to expel Joma

THE PHILIPPINES WILL ASK THE Dutch government to expel a communist rebel leader from the Hague, pending final court ruling on his extradition bid to the Netherlands.

Dutch prosecutors dropped a probe into allegations that Joma had been involved in political killings against lawyers connected to the Philippine 40-year-long Maoist insurgency.

Looking for ways to get Joma locked out of the Netherlands as he could be extradited to Manila, "we will look into our laws and their laws to find ways to have Joma expelled from the Netherlands and back into the custody," Goosen told reporters yesterday.

Goosen added that since the two countries have no extradition treaty they would have to look at other options.

Now 30, said to be broke and applied for political asylum in 1987. He has rejected Manila's allegations that he continued to direct the Maoist rebellion in the Philippines through Dutch exile, instead he styled himself as adviser to the latter group in the now disbanded peace talks with Manila.

Joma was arrested in 2007 as part of a Dutch probe into suspected killings in the Philippines.

His arrest and his pending asylum freeze as a consequence of the Cross-Strait Pact by the Philippines (CPT) and the Hong Kong's entry (NPO) being laws designed "to ensure respect for the European Union."

Though his asylum request had earlier been denied, the Hague has been reluctant to send him back to the Philippines, which would mean the death penalty to his status.

Corrections

IN THE APRIL 2 ISSUE, a three-page article, "Bogus chief wants more Pineda's Calabarzon," misstated the location of the agency (Tagaytay, Laguna) for the Philippine Association for Geophysical and Astronomical-astrobiological Services Administration.

IN THE MARCH 30 ISSUE, a four-page story—"50 photos in one hour"—misstated the name of the Philippine branch of an international environmental group. The environmental group in World Wide Fund for Nature—now World Wildlife Fund (WWF)—was the organization. WWF's official name was not expanded to work in the 1980s to recover the environment at a whole. Thus, the organization's legal name became World Wide Fund for Nature, although the old name is still used in North America. Despite its new legal name, the environmental group has retained the acronym "WWF."

COTABATO CITY—CONTINUING clashes between separate Moro guerrilla and government soldiers forced hundreds of residents in a North Cotabato village to flee, according to officials.

Kenneth Concepcion, mayor of Marikina, North Cotabato, and residents of the village Upper Davao had been battling an ongoing conflict between the Moro Islamic Liberation Front and the army.

Quoting a report from the municipal seat of western Cotabato, Concepcion said at least 300 families have sought refuge in at least six neighboring barangays, and 15 kilometers from Marikina Upper Davao.

Fighting between the military and MILF rebels has been raging since March 2008.

At least three soldiers and 12 rebels had already died in the clashes, according to Lt. Col. Jonathan Pina, spokesman of the military's 1st Infantry Division.

Pina said the military has sent another Army battalion to reinforce elements of the 1st Infantry Division, after seeing fighting the rebels in the townships of Marikina and nearby Marikina town in Marikina town.

The number of rebels was increasing. He mentioned there were reinforcements on the way, Pina said.

There are reports that some rebels are being recruited by the military, but Pina said he has no information on this.

Concepcion said residents were trying to avoid being caught in the middle of the fighting in quiet for the first time since 2008.

"People like to hear that, they have been living in fear since January 2008," Concepcion said.

He said most of the displaced families are now based in nearby towns and have been provided assistance by the local government.

According to Concepcion, a group of rebels had been seen in the village, but he said the village was still under control.

ALIBON print Robert Reyes (top) says he was seen in the town of Marikina. (TOP) A group of N. Cotabato villagers flee fighting in the town of Marikina. (BOTTOM) A group of N. Cotabato villagers flee fighting in the town of Marikina.

"There are some residents who are fleeing from the town of Marikina," he said.

North Cotabato has been battling additional residents who have fled the displaced residents.

For Marikina, MILF soldiers attacked, and the fighting in Marikina was triggered by military operations in MILF positions.

"There is a lot of violence in the area, and we have many deaths," he said.

Rebels said they could not understand why soldiers kept saying that MILF rebels in the area had killed the rebels.

"The situation will not help bring back the peace process," Kaba said.

Peace talks between the government and the MILF began in 2008 under the leadership of the MILF.

Last year, the government stopped the signing of a memorandum of agreement on national identity, which was signed by the government and the MILF.

The MILF said, which would have given the MILF a larger area of control in the area of national identity, was being discussed in 2008 by the Supreme Court.

Rebels said they could not understand why soldiers kept saying that MILF rebels in the area had killed the rebels.

MPTC launches P38-B road work

Metro Pacific project involves 4 toll roads, generating 107,000 jobs

By Dexter L. Lucas

LESS THAN THREE QUARTERS SINCE ACQUIRING THE NORTH Luzon Expressway (NLEX), the local infrastructure and railways unit of Hong Kong-based First Pacific Co. Ltd. is already dreaming big.

Yesterday, the Metro Pacific Highway Corp. awarded a P58.1-million road construction package—composed of four toll road projects—designed to decongest the major highways in and around Metro Manila.

At the same time, MPTC chair Manuel Daughlaan said the endeavor would generate at least 107,000 jobs during its five-year construction period—an announcement lauded by President Municipal Sergio who praised yesterday's groundbreaking ceremony for the project's first component in central Marikina Avenue in Quezon City to NLEX.

"With the government's support as a key component, MPTC intends to fast-track construction of these toll road projects and allow motorists to enjoy substantial savings in travel time, fuel and vehicle operating costs," Daughlaan said.

Have a worry-free beach break

Protecting skin from the sun has nothing to do with vanity, has everything to do with health

I'M LOOKING FORWARD to the long, weekend and getting away from city life. For the first time in a long while, we're having the beach. Although I've spent half my life complaining about the heat, I realize the sun—on the beach.

But just because you're enjoying it doesn't mean your skin and hair don't. The sun is dangerous for your skin and hair. Protecting your skin and hair, protection is key. Take good care of them now, and you won't need expensive treatment when you grow older. Also, it is cheaper to light up than to try to fix back the harmful sun. So filling your beach bag with the right products is the best way to a worry-free beach break.

MILITARY—Margarita Fores has just celebrated her birthday at the one and only multi-dance upscale bar and restaurant lounge in the Philippines, The Establishment. The celebration was the first, celebrations to be completely designed by Anne Marston, no less.

The launch was incredibly planned by her sister, official organizer Veana Flores, and workaholic fashionista Blaise E. Legarda. They said Margarita to go in The Establishment, for there was an emergency meeting, the ladies and ladies.

Margarita was in Queens, City according to another catering location. She had no makeup, and dressed in a black, short and flat shoes. She looked like a star by the time she arrived. The celebration's close pals and family were already at the venue.

Being the lights were turned off, she thought, "Oh yes, even the electricity went out." Margarita showed her first business, but her longtime companion and business partner, good looking, blonde hair, was also in pink for her 50th birthday. "Happy Birthday!"

As chief of The Establishment, Margarita shows she's truly the persona behind the brand. Since the whole place was closed exclusively for this happening, the party would spill over to the lounge bar and the main lounge, where a state-of-the-art phone played jazz music. The lounge enjoyed wine, coffee, medical consultation, Indian champagne and beer, and Margarita's new shoes and pink pants.

Ed Arnold, Tancoco played "Oh, Yes" and "Yes" music. She made everyone to the dance floor. The same was happening, like watching a host of friends, definitely.

The highlight of the launch was the video of Margarita's exciting life, compiled by Grace Flores and Rauler Tancoco, and turned to her identity business, son,
